

EVENTS Committee Description

The CAMRA Vancouver Events Committee's mandate is to plan, coordinate and execute events focusing on craft beer and the craft beer industry. With a team of volunteers, the committee acts as ambassadors for the event, the craft beer movement and the establishment. The commitment level of committee volunteers is roughly 3 hours a week, and may be more, closer to an actual event date.

Duties

- research appropriate event venues
- liaise with brewers to arrange beer for events
- design event template
- liaise with Treasurer to set up and follow budget
- coordinate event supplies, such as glassware, posters and promo items
- recruit volunteers
- liaise with Communications Director to promote event through social media and newsletter
- educate individuals through awareness
- provide assistance to establishments hosting events through:
 - social media
 - industry contacts
